On Monday, December 13, 2021 at 18:00 p.m. (Greek time), we are pleased to invite you to the third and last event of the CulturePolis / K.EL.A.L.P. project approved and partially subsidized by the Hellenic Ministry of Culture and Sports under the general title "A thousand and one ... lit-gatherings", which aims at the promotion of the Greek creative production as a means of intercultural dialogue in the region of the Southeastern Mediterranean, and the Arab world.

The event is titled "Historical and Cultural Routes in the Mediterranean" during which five Greek experts will speak through their creative work on the intercultural relations between our country and other Mediterranean countries.

Participants:

Theodoros Grigoriadis, author

Dr. Alexandros Kazamias, political science lecturer and researcher

Costas Konstantatos, musician, artist

Dr. Maria Papadima, literary translation expert, teacher

Costas Ferris, director, writer

You can see the biographies of the authors HERE

The event is coordinated by the author, translator of literature and Director of K.EL.A.L.P, Mrs. Persa Koumoutsis.

A welcome will be addressed by the Founder and President of CulturePolis Dr. Vasileios Laopodis.

The event will take place online with a parallel translation into two languages by Dr. Khaled Raouf and Persa Koumoutsis.

Visual material will be displayed.
